

Master of Science in CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Concentrations in
Criminal Justice Administration | Criminal Justice Practice

12-MONTH PROGRAM. 8-WEEK TERMS. 100% ONLINE.

Justice Starts Here.

The Master of Science in Criminal Justice (MSCJ) program educates new practitioners and provides professional education necessary for those seeking career advancement in both administration and practice. The administrative area emphasizes the formulation and implementation of policies, laws, and management issues such as decision making, fiscal responsibility, program evaluation and performance evaluation. The practice area focuses on understanding specific methods, techniques, and skills utilized in the criminal and juvenile justice systems when interacting with victims, offenders, and other professionals. This 12-month program is a pivotal link in the region, as currently there are no other private higher education non-profit schools that offer a 100% online MSCJ degree.
