BACHELOR'S PROGRAM

Bachelor of Science in ACCOUNTING

Excellence in Numbers.

Master accounting and business principles through individualized instruction, one-on-one help sessions and group learning activities. The accounting program combines the broad liberal arts curriculum with emphasis on critical thinking skills and the specialized knowledge to fully prepare students for careers with CPA firms, large corporations, government and not-for-profit agencies. Accounting majors learn how to gather, record, analyze, interpret, and communicate information about an individual's or organization's financial performance and risks.
