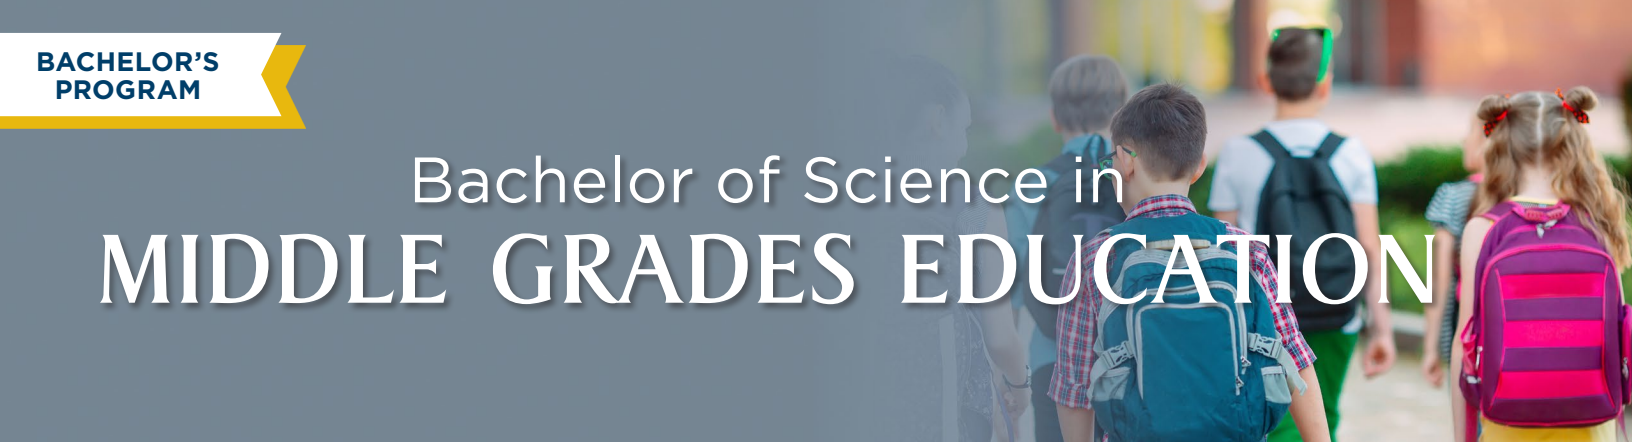
BACHELOR'S PROGRAM



Bachelor of Science in MIDDLE GRADES EDUCATION

Learn Today, Lead Tomorrow.

As a future educator, you understand the importance of quality education and the role it plays in students' lives. Choosing one of NCWU's Teacher Education Programs affords you the firm foundation needed to shape tomorrow's future. The Middle Grades Education program is a licensure program that prepares students to teach in grades 6-9. Students are required to complete two concentrations selected from the following four areas: Language Arts, Social Studies, Mathematics or Science.

PERSONAL

Our faculty have real-world professional experience to ensure you are challenged and supported through mentoring and the connections we provide.

PRACTICAL

Develop lifelong skills through your educational opportunities that are broadly useful, fully transferable and applicable to any challenge or career.

PURPOSE-DRIVEN

Use your degree as a stepping stone to pursue accredited certifications offered at leading organizations or post-graduate study programs.

CAREER AREAS:

- Middle School Teacher (6-9)

FACT: In September 2023, North Carolina had 3,500+ teaching vacancies.*

Demand for educators is rising nationwide each year. Deepen your impact in local communities, build strong job security and create more options for your career.

VERY HIGH DEMAND

PAY TRENDS:

The median annual wage* for the Education field of degree is:

Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Outlook Handbook. Not entry level - varies based on location, education and experience. Recent graduates would need to earn experience and advance in career to earn a higher salary.*

"The education program at Wesleyan does a great job of fostering a sense of community and dedication to a noble profession that literally changes and impacts lives on a daily basis."
